

Sustainable Cities and Communities

Inaugural Conference of the Center for Collaborative Knowledge
Louisiana State University

April 12-13, 2018

Exploring the environmental, sociological, political, and creative challenges of life in modern cities and focusing on opportunities for future growth and sustainability.

Thursday, April 12 - Energy, Coast, and Environment Rotunda

- 9:00 am Lecture: Understand Cities through Measurement and Embedded Intelligence
- 10:45 am Panel: Technology and Urban Design
- 1:30 pm Lecture: Tensions of Force: Policing, Security, and Governance in New Orleans
- 3:15 pm Panel: Race and the Future of Urban Policing

Friday, April 13 - Sternberg Salon, French House

- 9:00 am Lecture: The Future of Conservation in Urban America
- 10:45 am Panel: Urban Environments
- 1:30 pm Lecture: Drain the Swamp? Ecological Metaphors and Paradox

Also: Student poster sessions (both days)

Keynote Speakers

- Charles Catlett, University of Chicago
- Aisha Beliso-De Jesús, Harvard Divinity School
- Laurence Ralph, Harvard University
- Gary Machlis, Clemson University
- Martha Serpas, University of Houston

For more information, visit CCK.LSU.EDU

