Gainful Employment Disclosure

Post-Baccalaureate Certificate in Construction Management

The U.S. Department of Education requires colleges to disclose a variety of information for any financial aid eligible program that prepares students for gainful employment in a recognized occupation.

A gainful employment disclosure includes the following information:
1. Cost of the program including tuition, fees, books, and supplies
2. Median loan debt incurred by students who have completed the program
3. Normal time to completion and normal time to completion rates
4. Job placement rate for students completing the program
