Over the course of the 2017-18 academic year, the Film and Media Arts faculty presented and had approved a proposal to create the new Screen Arts program through the Courses & Curricula Committee for the College of Humanities & Social Sciences, the University's Courses & Curricula Committee, the Office of Academic Affairs, the LSU Board of Supervisors, and the Louisiana Board of Regents. The Screen Arts program was approved for implementation effective Fall 2018, and the intent as outlined in the paperwork submitted was to simultaneously terminate the Film and Media Arts concentration under the Liberal Arts major. Unfortunately, the actual Form E needed to terminate the Film and Media Arts concentration was inadvertently not included in the packet of paperwork filed. Please accept the attached Form E and this justification so that we can rectify this small oversight in the University records.
