

Ready to pick your LSU room, Tiger? It's time!

Based on the date you completed your LSU on-campus housing application, your assigned room selection time slot is:

See Application Status in myLSU.

This specific time slot is when you gain access to room selection in the housing portal. More students gain access every day, so select your room as soon as you can for the best selection. You will continue to have access through April 14, 2017.

For step-by-step instructions on selecting your building and room, roommate information, room change information, waitlist details, and more, view the Room Assignments Guide Book:

Details to Know Before You Select a Room:

- Know how to log in to the housing portal (myLSU > Student Services> On-campus Housing).
- Be sure to search for, request and accept roommates as described in the step-by-step guide before you go online to select your room. Your accepted roommates are the only people you'll be able to pull in to your room.
 - Your housing preference determines what roommates you can and cannot see. If you have "Traditional Housing" as your housing preference, you can only see other students with the same preference.
 - If you need to change your housing preference prior to room selection, email that request to reslife@lsu.edu. If you need to change it after April 17, simply add yourself to your preferred building's waitlist.
 - You can pull in a roommate who has a later room selection time slot than you.
- Follow the steps on page 13 of the step-by-step guide to access the "Application Status" page in the housing portal where you can see your room selection time slot, current housing preference and roommate information.
- Floor plans are available on each residence hall's web page.

New This Year: Waitlists

Beginning April 17, 2017, you can add and remove yourself from buildings' waitlists in the housing portal. Follow the steps on page 14 of the step-by-step guide.

We will contact you if a space open ups in your preferred building/program. Check your email regularly. The Res Life Assignments staff will not move you to an available space unless we receive written communication verifying the move. In order to be most effective, these moves are time-sensitive and will require an email response within 48 hours in most cases.

No Longer Need On-Campus Housing?

Make Sure to Cancel Your Application. The $250 advance rent submitted with new student applications is refundable based on the date you cancel your application with LSU Residential Life, not LSU Undergraduate Admissions.

Only cancel your housing application if you no longer need on-campus housing. DO NOT cancel your housing application to make a room or building change. Please contact the Residential Life Assignments staff to process a room change by emailing reslife@lsu.edu.
